THE VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE TO ELECT U. S. SENATORS.-Attorney General Hoar has given an opinion upon the power of the Virginia Legislature to elect United States Senators after organizing, and says they have authority to do so, as such action is not regarded as legislative business, and will therefore be legal. The Legislature will probably enter into the election of Senators immediately after organizing on Tuesday next.

PROPOSED REMEDY FOR GOLD GAMBLING .-Senator Wilson says that he proposes, at the next session of Congrees, to introduce a bill providing that any person who shall engage in buying or selling gold, and shall fail to deliver the actual coin, shall be punished with heavy fine and imprisonment. He thinks this would go far to break up the system of gold gambling which prevails in Wall street, and prevent the repition of such scenes as were witnessed there ast week.

GOLD SALES IN BALTIMOBE AUTHORIZED .-Collector Thomas, of Baltimore, has been aboring for some time past to have arrangements made whereby the merchants of Baltimore could obtain gold for the payment of cus. toms duties without going to New York and submitting to delays and extra costs, and has succeeded in getting the Secretary of the Treasury to allow him to sell to merchants for the purpose indicated fifty thousand dollars in gold each week, at an advance of % of 1 per cent. on the premium current in gold exchange of New York.

HON. JOHN COVODE, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Pennsylvania, yesterday had a long interview with the President relative to the approaching election in that State, as stated in THE STAR of last evening. While Mr. Covode expressed the opinion that Governor Geary would be reelected, he admitted that the contest would be a close one, and that it would require all the influence of the administration to aid in securing success. He told the President that his recent visit to the western part of the State had been very beneficial, and hoped he would pay a visit to the eastern part. A large State fair, he said, was to be neld at Allentown this week, and he thought the President should attend it. The President replied that he would do so if his business, would permit.

GOVERNMENT AID ASKED TO SUPPRESS GAMBLING .- The Collector, Naval Officer, and Surveyor of the port of New York have united in requesting Secretary Boutwell to make a contribution on behalf of the Government to the society in that city for the suppression of gambling. They allege that the interests of the Government require that there should be a system of espionage over those in Government employ, and the only practical way of reaching those guilty of gambling is through the influence of this society. The New York merchants contribute according to their business, the firms of A. T. Stewart and Classin & Co. paying $2,500 each annually. Secretary Boutwell having no authority to authorize the expenditure, was compelled to refuse the request.

A REIGN OF TERROR IN MISSISSIPPL.-Gen. A REIGN OF TERROR IN MISSISSIPPI.—Gen. Ames, who took command in Mississippi last March, reports that since that period he has received official notice of thirty-two murders, including that of Col. Of the other arrests made under his orders for murders and arrests made under his orders for murders and other violence, thirteen have been taken out of his hands by the United States judges. He believes that the Kukluz Klan are attempting to create a reign of terror, with a view of affecting the approaching elections, and thinks that through either inability or unwillingness the civil authorities are remiss in enforcing the CONFESSION OF A MURDERER.—All doubts entertained of the guilt of Zachsry T. Hockinberry, convicted of the murder of Miss Nancy Ann McCandless at Butler, have at last been dispelled by the confession of Hockinberry. He admits the burning of Mr. McCandless' born; also the house of Mr. McCandless, and finnally to the murder of Miss McCandless. The excitement caused in Butler by the confession is intense.—Pittsburg (Pa.) Mail, September 27. tember 27.

A MATCH TO DEXTER.—Bonner writes to the New York Herald that the report that Dexter is to trot against Lady Thorne for the benefit of the Avendale fund, is without foundation. He declines to let Dexter trot against any horse even the most worthy purpose; but he offers $100,000 in cash for any horse in the world that will trot as Dexter trotted week before last, a mile in $2.21% to a road wagon, and carrying the same weight which he carried.

THE TRIP OF THE ODD FELLOWS TO THE PACIFIC.

From Omaha Through.

Religious Exercises at Echo Cahon—Preaching and Photographing at the same time—The Odd Fel-lows Strike Fruit—The Odd Fellows Baked and Orated at Sacramento-They are Ovated and Excursionized at San Francisco.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Sept. 19, 1869 .- Editor Star: Soon after the close of my last letter we left Omaha for this point, the train being a special one, and composed of four Pullman Palace Cars, a dining-room and a commissary car. On Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock we reached Echo Cañon, where a halt was made. and under the shadow of over-hanging rocks religious services were engaged in, under the eadership of the Grand Chaplain, Rev. J. W. Venable, of Kentucky, (a native of Washington city.) The impressive service of the Episcopal Church was read, and all united in singing the hymn, "Jesus, lover of my soul," and the doxology. While thus engaged in devotion, the photographer of the Union Pacific Railroad, by direction of the company, took a fine picture of the interesting scene. Leaving the Canon, the train proceeded on schedule time, stopping at the different stations on the road to receive the fraternal greetings of large numbers who were assembled to welcome the Grand Lodge of the United States, and bid them God-speed in their labor of love. At Winnemucca, Nevada, on Monday night, about 12 o'clock, the entire membership of the Lodge there greeted us, and Grand Master Hayden, of that jurisdiction, delivered an ad-dress of welcome, referring to the fact that on dress of welcome, referring to the fact that on that spot one hundred years ago Baron Humboldt encamped after a survey of the mountains, which was responded to by Grand Sire Farnsworth; large quantities of California fruit, etc., were placed on the train by the Winnemuccaers, which the company much enjoyed. The same attention greeted us at Carlin, Elko City, Truckee, and other places on the route, and, indeed, the entire region through which we passed seemed to be alive to the importance

we passed seemed to be alive to the importance of the occasion. On Tuesday, at 6 p.m., the train reached Sacramento, no stoppage being made for a trip to Great Salt Lake City, the programme along the route not permitting such a consumption of time; it being understood, however, that Mormondom will receive the attentions of the party on their return. After the reception at Sacramento, the members were conducted to the quarters provided, and tired nature sought repose in balmy sleep. On the morrow the entire order of that city, with the Grand Lodge of California, were out in procession, and escorted the G. L. U. S. to the site of a new Odd Fellows' hall, where the corner-stone was laid by the Grand Sire, under the scorching rays of "an equatorial sun," the effects of which will not soon be forgotten. At night a grand banquet was given at the Pavilion in honor of the visitors, at which over eight hundred la-dies and gentlemen were seated at the nine coffee. Appetites being appeased, toasts were responded to by many of the distinguished party, and then they repaired to the upper saioon, where dancing was enjoyed by the terpsi-choreans until the "wee sma' hours," too late to recuperate for the duties of the succeeding

At four o'clock on Thursday morning the California committee were around preparing the party for the trip to San Francisco. "All aboard" the train on the Western Pacific Railroad, (opened but a few days previously,) we were glad to find that the last gap of the long ourney across the Continent was being successfully closed. But, alas! the "schemes of mice and men oft gang aglee;" after a travel of some twenty-five miles "down brakes" squealed from the engine, and the unwelcome intelligence passed from mouth to mouth that the connecting rod of the engine was broken, which would necessitate a delay of about two hours, as we were several miles from the nearest telegraph station. At length a gravel train reached the scene of disaster, and a transfer of engines being made, we were again en route for Alameda, which was reached between two and three o'clock p.m., where, on invitation of Na-than Porter, P. G. Rep., a fine collation was partaken of in the grove in the rear of his residence, full justice being done to the viands so profusely spread.

The Alameda ferry was crossed about 6 p m. (Washington time,) and on nearing the wharf at San Francisco, the booming of cannon, ringing of bills, whistling of steamers, and bands of music, told that no ordinary event was occurring, the decks and masts of vessels and house tops and wharves being croweded with persons anxious to do honor to the Grand Lodge of the United States. The ladies being placed under escort hotelward, the members formed in line and joined the procession, composed of the Lodges and Encamp-ments and grand bodies of this jurisdiction headed by a battalion of the National Guard. and proceeded to the theatre, where Grand Master Harmon welcomed the Grand Lodge of the United States to the Pacific coast and to San Francisco, referring to the good results that would flow from the Senate of Odd Fellowship holding its session here. Grand Sire Farnsworth responded in a well-timed address complimenting the fraternity here for the rapid strides made in behalf of the principles of Friendship, Love, and Truth. After repeated calls for Grand Secretary Ridgely, that yeteran made a few remarks, which were received with the greatest delight. Darkness coming on, the ceremonies of reception were concluded, and the Grand Lodge of the United states escorted to Odd Fellows' Hall, and thence to their quarters, at different hotels, and terminating the grandest demonstrations ever occurring in this city of great displays-so saith the "oldest inhabitant" On Friday, on board the steamship Senator, an excursion was made around the Bay of San Francisco, stopping at Hunter's Point to examine the dry dock and works there; thence through the Golden Gate to the Pacific ocean, where the rolling of the steamer caused a general upheaval of the "inner man;" and afterwards proceeding in various directions view-ing the many Islands, fortifications, &c., of this beautiful harbor. During the trip a bountitul collation was enjoyed by the keen appe. tite, whetted by the salt ocean air. At about p. m., we returned to the city.

Saturday was occupied in visiting many interesting localities hereabouts, including an inspection of the steamships Golden Age, China, and Constitution at the docks of the Pacific and Constitution at the docks of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, where we were kindly received by Chief Engineer Charles A. Stuart, (son of F. D. Stuart, Esq., of Washington,) from whom much valuable information pertaining to the business of this extensive Company, was obtained. Shortly after leaving, the booming of cannon announced the arrival of the Green Respublic another of the rival of the Great Republic another of the Company's steamships, direct from China, and there was a rush from all quarters to see the landing of a large importation of Chiness, men and women, witness their examination by the custom-house officials, and their transportation to the Chinese quarter of the city, in all of which much interest was taken by the Eastern visitors. Following in the wake of the newly arrived, we reached an interesting locality known as the "Barbary Coast," gathering much interesting information of the many nationed peoples there congregated, excelling in iniquity the puritiens of our Eastern cities.

Grand Lodge of California, for their many attentions during the trip. From the time of their meeting the body at Omaha until reaching this point, they were untiring in their exertions for the comfort and pleasure of the large party (165, including about thirty ladies,) committed to their charge by the grand body of this jurisdiction. The successful manner in which they performed their duties, and the satisfaction given to all, has convinced your correspondent that they can "keep a hotel."

Many Washingtonians were met on the routand here—among them W. D. Todd, Esq., the private secretary of Vice President Colfax; & Goldstein, J. B. Cuchran, of the branch minimhere; J. G. Meisell, Esq., and John N. Clark, (colored.) the latter of whom had charge of the Pullman car to Promontory on the U. P. R. occupied by the Representatives from District of Columbia, Maryland, and the two Virginias.

Vice President Colfax, with the Colfax-Broas party, returned to this city last evening, from their trip to Oregon; they are in good health, and express themselves as highly pleased with their experiences by the way, although somewhat nauseated by the lurching of the steamship, which caused sea-sickness. They returned by the Vallejo route, and are at their quarters at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, where the Washington delegation are stopping.

This afternoon we visited Woodward's Gardens and inspected the big nugget of gold, weighing ninety-five pounds, and valued at twenty-two thousand dollars. This is said to be the largest piece of gold ever found in California, and was taken from a mine near Bownieville. There is also to be seen in this garden one of the largest varieties of animals, b'rds. paintings, &c., to be found in this section of the country, and attracts many visitors.

A visit to the old church of the Mission Dolores was very interesting. It is stated that a number of Franciscans Friars left Spain on the 4th of April, 1776, and having reached this coast, pitched their tents on the site of the church on the 4th of July, 1776, the day of the adoption of the Declaration of American In-dependence. This is regarded as a remarkable coincidence by the sexton who imparts the information, and is believed by him to be true. It is understood that Vice President Colfax, who is a Past Representative, will visit the Grand Lodge on Tuesday.

augment the public disquietude. THE PENNSYLVANIA COAL TRADE-Business Dull.—The Philadelphia Ledger of Monday thus reports the condition of the coal trade: The anthracite coal trade continues dull as to orders from consumers, but the supply in the aggregate is on the increase, without any material change in prices. The Reading Railroad Company brought down for the week 103,050 tons, and for the year 3,097,814 tons, against 2,557,268 tons to corresponding time in 1868, an increase of 540,576 tons. The Schuyl-kill Navigation brought down for the week 17,584 tons, and for the season 482,986 tons, against 635,177 tons to same time last season, an increase of 152,161 tons. The entire season, an increase of 152,161 tons. The entire coal tonnage of the week by all the principal carrying companies is 320,018 tons, and for the year 5,386,763 tons, against 9,401,923 tons to corresponding time in 1868—a decrease of 15,169 tons. On the 29th instant there will be another public scale of Scranton coal, and something will depend upon the prices then realized as to the future of prices in the general market. On Friday last some of the representatives of the mines were in this city, with the view of determining the prices of coal on which to found a basis for the price of production of the current month. The miners at the first of the month agreed to continue on work, leaving the average price of coal for the month to be fixed on the 25th instant, on which to adjust a basis. We have not learned what price was agreed upon, was expected by the miners, which, if granted by the coal operators, a decrease in the price of coal to consumers is not very probable. There is one thing connected with the trade that we think indisputable. There is capacity not only in mining force, but in transportation facilities for a considerable increase in coal production, and that this fact will manifest itself as soon as orders take the present stock of coal from the centres at which it is piled. The Reading Railroad Company has twenty locomotives and two thousand coal cars more than I had at this time last year, giving it a capacity et 140,000 tons a week. The Lenigh Valley road and the Lehigh Navigation have each increased proportionately as much or more, so that there seems no probability of a scarcity of coal, though the market may be so managed as to prevent any fall in the price of coal. Vessels are in moderate supply—freighte unchanged.

WORKINGMEN'S PARTY IN MASSACHUSETT State Convention.-The Massachusetts State Labor Reform Convention, to found a new political party in the interest of the werkingmen and nominate a State ticket, met at Worcester yesterday. Resolutions were adopted asserting that all laws creating distinctions in favor of color or condition are clear violations of the fundamental principles of a Democratic Gov-ernment; asserting that all associations of workingmen and workingwomen formed with view of promoting their moral or material interests, should receive the same charters, rights, and privileges at the hands of the Legislature as are granted to associated capital; insisting upon the reduction of the hours of labor to eight for labor employed at the public expense; demanding of every political candidate a pledge to advocate the enactment of a law prohibiting all manufacturing establishments from employing females and minors. ments from employing females and minors if ore than ten hours; asserting that exemption from tax of bonds or securities is a violation of the great principles of the revenue laws, and lays an unjust burden on the producing classes of the country; opposing the introduc-tion of Chinamen; calling for the creation of a department of labor at Washington; urging the friends of labor to use all their influence to secure the election of candidates unequivocally committed to principles embraced in this plat form; and asserting the recognition of the claim of the bondholders, that the national debt is payable in coin only, is clear repudiation of The following nominations were made: For Governor, E. M. Chamberlain, of Boston; for Lieutenant Governor, Jas. Chattaway, of Springfield; Secretary of State, S. B. Pratt, of Randolph; for Treasurer, W. W. Stoddard, of North Bridgewater for Attorney General C. Cowley, of Lowell; for Auditor, Joseph Glines, of Haverbill. None of these gentlemen have been prominent in political matters, and but few delegates were acquainted with the candi-date for Governor. The action of the convention is not likely to make much change in the political affairs of the State. This ticket is entirely distinct from the Democratic or Republican nominations.
